By signing the Outgoing Wire Transfer Authorization Form, you authorize Big Island Federal Credit Union to transfer funds as shown on this wire request form, plus applicable fees. You are responsible for the accuracy of the above information. If your payment order identifies the recipient and any financial institution by name and account or other identifying number, Big Island Federal Credit Union and any other financial institutions facilitating the transfer may rely strictly on the account or other identifying number, even if the number identifies a different person or financial institution. You understand that we may confirm the information on all wire requests before sending the wire. Once we have sent an outgoing wire, the transfer is final and cannot be stopped, so please make sure all the information about the wire is correct and that you want the wire sent according to that information. If you provide incomplete or inaccurate information, we will not be responsible for any resulting wire transfer losses, delays, or failed transactions. Wire transfers are governed by Federal Reserve Regulation J if the transfer is cleared through the Federal Reserve. All wires must comply with applicable US laws. Wire requests must be completed in person at any branch if your wire request is $10,000 or more per day and/or if your contact information was changed within the last 30 days.
